

*Ever wanted to try your hand
at glass painting?*

Images taken from Decorating Glass & Ceramics by Mary Fellows

Or wondered how
you could personalise a piece of china?

Why not toast a special event with a set of delicately hand painted champagne flutes?

Image taken from Simple Glass Crafts by Marthe Le Van

Image taken from Decorative Painting on Glass, Ceramics and Metal by Judy Balchin

*Or transform that forgotten plate or vase
into a decorative item for your home?*

*Play with colours and designs
to match your décor or to personalise your gift...*

...or do it just for fun.

*You don't need to be an artist –
anyone can produce stunning
glass or porcelain painting.*

Images taken from Decorative Painting on Glass, Ceramics and Metal by Judy Balchin

Image taken from The Complete Guide to Glass Painting by Alan Gear and Barry Freestone

*The step-by-step techniques
are easy to follow.*

What's more, the pieces don't require firing in a kiln.

Anyone can be creative with glass
and porcelain:
my youngest pupil was five and
the eldest was well into her sixties.

Image taken from Ceramics & Glassware by Alma Caira

Image taken from Decorating Glass & Ceramics by Mary Fellows

*Whether you're a beginner or experienced painter, you'll have hours of fun
exploring a world of endless creative possibilities.*

*For classes or more information,
please call or email Li Sim.
tel: 0401213303 • e-mail: lisimloh@yahoo.com*

